

ALKIRA CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Alkira Board of Directors is committed to maintaining high standards of Corporate Governance. This Corporate Governance Statement provides an outline of the main corporate governance practices that the Company had in place during the past financial year.

The Board believes that Alkira's policies and practices are consistent in all substantial respects with good corporate governance practice in Australia and appropriate for the circumstances of the Company.

The information in this Statement has been approved by the Board and is current as at 19th December 2017.

Role of the Board and management

The respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and management are detailed in the Board Charter.

The Board Charter also sets out the matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management.

Appointment, induction and training

When selecting new Directors, the Board ensures that the candidate has the appropriate range of skills, experience and expertise to ensure the Board's effectiveness.

Alkira ensures that appropriate background checks are undertaken regarding the potential new Director's character, experience, education and criminal record before appointing or putting forward a Director for election.

Upon appointment, each Director (and senior executive) receives a written agreement which sets out the terms of their appointment and undergoes an induction program.

Directors are also provided with regular professional development opportunities to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as Directors effectively.

Board performance

Alkira believes it is important that the Board reviews its own performance to ensure it continues to perform at a high level. Under the Board Charter, the Board must conduct an annual performance review.

Independence of the Board

The Board Charter requires a minimum number of Directors who have family members who are clients of Alkira.

The remainder of the Board are independent Directors, including the Chairman. The Board's assessment of the independence of each current Director and their appointment date is set out below.

Risk

Alkira's exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks, together with the approach to managing those risks, is outlined in the Risk Register, which is reviewed by the Finance, Investment and Risk Committee.

Internal audit

The Company does not have an internal audit function, and due to its size and current activities the Board does not believe one is warranted at this time.

The management prepares and presents to the Finance, Investment and Risk Committee a Risk Register addressing internal audit matters. The management undertakes self-assessment and review of risk areas on an ongoing basis.

The Board works closely with the management team to identify and manage operational, financial and compliance risks which could prevent Alkira from achieving its objectives. The Finance, Investment and Risk Committee actively encourages the external auditor to raise internal control issues, and oversees management's reviews to ensure the management and improvement of processes within the business.

External Auditor

Alkira's external auditor attends the Annual General Meeting (AGM). The auditors' independence declaration is contained in the Directors' Report section of the Annual Report.

Management

Alkira has a process for periodically evaluating the performance of senior management. Under the Board Charter, the Board must conduct an annual performance review of management.

CEO and Senior Finance Officer Declaration

Before it approves the full year financial statements, the Board must receive a statement from its CEO and the Senior Finance Officer that the financial records have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of Alkira, and their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.

Code of Conduct

Alkira is committed not only to complying with its legal obligations, but also to acting ethically and responsibly. Alkira expects a high level of honesty, care, fair dealing and integrity in the conduct of all business activities.

Alkira has a Code of Conduct which sets the minimum standards of conduct expected of all Directors, officers, executives, employees and contractors. The Code of Conduct is available on the Alkira website.
