

Residential Support Workers - Part Time Ongoing and Casual Support Workers

Alkira proudly provides supports and services for people with disabilities and their families. Our residential service offers supported accommodation, respite and independent living support in a range of locations in the eastern suburbs.

The role centres on assisting people living in shared supported accommodation:

- Live a lifestyle that reflects their needs, interests and wishes
- Connect with family, friends and their community
- Foster and maintain their independence and involvement in managing all aspects of their daily living.

Alkira is a medium sized community service organisation, which offers:

- A supportive work culture
- On the job coaching and mentoring
- Professional development and training
- Career pathways
- Access to our Employee Assistance Program
- Access to salary packaging

We are looking for candidates who are interested in being part of a team that:

- Values creativity and innovation
- Contributes to a positive culture
- Has a Can Do attitude
- Celebrates diversity

Salary and condition are in accordance with Alkira Residential Agreement 2003 and 1999 with the option of salary packaging. The job involves sleepovers, weekend and weekday work.

Alkira is participating in the Disability Worker Exclusion Scheme which has been designed to protect people who are supported in Residential Services against abuse and neglect.

As part of this scheme, prospective job candidates must be prepared to give consent to having their names checked with DHS's Disability Worker Exclusion List and provide a Statutory Declaration attesting to having no previous work history of neglect and abuse of people supported as part of the organisation's pre-employment checks.

Applications are to be made via Seek link below or emailed to jobs@alkira.org.au