

How to Give Feedback
or Complain

We welcome all feedback

Give Feedback or Make a Complaint

You have the right to give feedback or make a complaint.

It makes us better at what we do.

If you want to give feedback or complain you should do it as soon as you can.

You will not be treated differently for saying what you think and how you feel.

Sometimes we can respond to your feedback or complaint straight away.

Sometimes we need to find out more before we can respond.

This can take time but we will tell you what is happening and when you can expect to hear from us.

What is feedback or complaining?

Feedback or complaining is telling us what you think about:

- Alkira
- The work of Alkira staff
- Our services and supports

What can you give feedback or complain about?

You can give feedback about anything you think is important, for example tell us if:

- You are happy about your supports

- You are unhappy about your supports

- Someone has hurt you or made you feel bad

- You do not feel safe
- You have a suggestion about how we can do things better
- Someone is doing a good job.

Why should you give feedback or complain?

Feedback is important for you and for us.
By giving us feedback you can:

- Get the support you need
- Change things that make you unhappy
- Help other people who are unhappy

- Help us thank staff who do a good job

- Help us make our services better.

Who can give feedback or complain?

- Alkira Participants

- Family and friends

- Carers and guardians

- Staff

- Advocates
